Brenda Lopiccolo is a Managing Director in Institutional asset Management within Banc One Advisors Corporation. She is responsible for institutional client service for states in the South and West regions.

Brenda has 11 years of investment management experience. She originally joined Bank One in 1992 as a manager with a focus on providing due diligence for merger and acquisition activities and other audit functions. In 1994, she became a statewide manager within the Trust group in Louisiana with various areas of responsibility, including institutional retirement plan services.

Prior to joining Bank One, Brenda was with Arthur Andersen & Company as an audit and attestation staff, senior and manager for eight years. Her client responsibilities included serving publicly held client accounts in connection with Securities and Exchange Commission filings, and working with public and private entities in the oil and gas, financial services and manufacturing sectors.
