DESIGNATION OF BENEFICIARY

GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. You may designate a primary beneficiary or beneficiaries and, in addition, may name a contingent beneficiary or beneficiaries to receive any benefit that may become payable under the Plan by reason of your death.
2. If you designate more than one beneficiary, each shall share equally unless you specify a different allocation or preference. The allocation among beneficiaries must total 100%.
3. Such designation may be revoked or changed at any time and from time to time without notice to any beneficiary, and shall not be effective unless and until filed with the Authorized Agent.
4. If you fail to designate a beneficiary, or if no designated beneficiary survives you, the Death Benefit shall be paid to your spouse, if living, or otherwise, to your estate.
5. Neither your Employer, the Trustees or the Fund shall be named as beneficiary.
6. You cannot designate a minor child (under age 18) as a beneficiary.
7. It is your responsibility to change beneficiaries if you have a life changing event such as marriage, a divorce or a death of a beneficiary.
8. If you are a vested Employee at the time of your death, your spouse may be eligible for a Spouse's Pension under the terms of the Plan. A Spouse's Pension will be paid in lieu of any payment to a designated beneficiary. If you are no longer an active Employee, refer to the terms of the Plan regarding Death Benefits payable after termination of employment or during retirement.
9. If your primary beneficiary dies after he/she begins receiving the payments, any remaining payments will go to the estate of the primary beneficiary. Your contingent beneficiary will not receive the remaining benefits. Your contingent beneficiary will only receive the remaining certain payments if your primary beneficiary is deceased at the time of your death.
10. If your pension plan includes a Hybrid Option, your accumulated employee contributions will be paid to the designated beneficiary.
11. Under Oklahoma law, if at the time of your death you are divorced from the spouse named as beneficiary, the beneficiary designation is revoked. Annulment of the marriage shall have the same effect as divorce. Benefits would then be paid to the remaining named beneficiary(ies). There are exceptions to this rule as set forth in 15 Oklahoma Statutes Section 178. If you have questions about this rule you should seek legal advice.
